

Victoriorious

UNDERWOOD TYPEWRITER

Wins Thousand Dollar Silver Trophy Cup

For the Seventh Consecutive Time

In competition with all other writing machines, breaking the International Professional Record for

Speed and Accuracy

At the Annual Business Show—November 12, 1912, in New York City

Operated by Florence E. Wilson at 117 net words a minute for one hour

Year	Winner	Net words per min.
November 1st 1906	Rose L. Fritz	82
October 17th 1907	" "	87
October 22nd 1908	" "	87
September 30th 1909	" "	95
October 27th 1910	H. O. Blaisdell	109
October 26th 1911	" "	112
November 12th 1912	Florence E. Wilson	117

Won by
UNDERWOOD
UNDERWOOD
UNDERWOOD
UNDERWOOD
UNDERWOOD
UNDERWOOD

The UNDERWOOD holds and always has held the World's Championship.
The UNDERWOOD holds All the World's Records for Speed and Accuracy.

"The Machine You Will Eventually Buy"

More Underwood Typewriters are Manufactured and Sold than Any Other Writing Machine Made in the World

EXTRA SESSION IS IMPERATIVE

Senator Martin Thinks It Should Be Called as Soon as Practicable.

PARTY MUST KEEP PLEDGES

No Reason to Delay Their Fulfillment for Nine Months.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Washington, November 13.—Senator Thomas S. Martin, of Virginia, believes in extra session of Congress is imperative.
"In my judgment," the Senator said today, "Congress should be convened as soon as practicable after the fourth day of March. The Democratic party has been entrusted with power because of the several important reform measures which were passed by the Democratic House in the sixty-second Congress, and most of which measures were also passed by the Senate, although the Democrats did not have a majority of that body, and because of the promises and pledges made to the people of the country in the platform adopted by the Baltimore convention."

"I believe the pledges of a party should be absolutely carried out. I was a member of the committee on resolutions of the Baltimore convention and on the sub-committee of eleven, which was appointed to formulate the platform. I was then, and am now, thoroughly in accord with all of the provisions contained in that platform, and can see no reason why the performance of the promises of the party should be delayed nine months, from the fourth of March to the first of December. If the legislation promised is wise and of such a nature as to promote the welfare of the people of the country, the sooner it is enacted the better."
"Sometimes it is suggested that the Democratic majority in the Senate is so narrow, and that there are some differences in opinion which are likely to prevent the passage of promised legislation. But I am sure that these suggestions are without any foundation. In fact, nearly all of the measures which passed the Democratic House of Representatives during the sixty-second Congress were passed by the Senate."

There were very few differences among Democratic Senators. The departure from the provisions of the House bills were made to secure the votes of the progressive Republicans, without whose votes none of the bills could have been passed, and not because of any differences among Democrats except that a few Democrats differed from the House in respect to the sugar schedule.

"When the Senate is organized on the fourth day of March, I have not the slightest doubt about such harmony and co-operation among Democrats of the Senate as will secure the passage through that body of all the legislation promised the people in the Baltimore platform. I shall certainly devote my best efforts and energies to accomplishing such purposes."

"Do you think it will be possible for the Democrats of the Senate to legislate without the aid of the Progressive Republicans?" he was asked.
"I confidently believe," he replied, "that the Democrats will be able to legislate and to carry out all promises contained in the Baltimore platform without any outside aid whatever. The Progressive Republicans in the last session of Congress were on many of the questions nearly in accord with the Democratic party and enabled us to pass measures with very moderate concessions to them. I appreciate now, as I did then, their cooperation. We will, of course, be very glad to have them with us again whenever they can agree with us, but having a clear majority of the Senate, I shall expect the Senate to legislate strictly in accord with Democratic doctrines and in the fullest execution of the declarations of the party, contained in the Baltimore platform." P. H. McEl.

Home Mission Week Charts.
Home mission week will be observed throughout the United States and Canada for the week beginning November 17. In many cities extensive campaigns have been planned, and in others where no city-wide campaign has been planned individual churches will conduct special services and investigations.
There is an exhibition at the Y. M. C. A. building, Grace and Seventh Streets, twelve large charts, giving information concerning the investigations conducted, that will be of interest to every minister and worker. These graphic charts include: (1) "Growth of the United States"; (2) "Metropolitan Districts"; (3) "Loss of Population of Great Agricultural States"; (4) "The Church as a Religious Force"; (5) "A Source of Supply for Social Workers"; (6) "United Program of Advance"; (7) "Ownership of Wealth in the United States and the Growth of Socialism"; (8) "Sources of Immigration"; (9) "Economic Aspect of the Liquor Problem"; (10) "The Negro Problem"; (11) "The Negro Problem"; (12) "Literary in Cuba."
The charts will be on exhibition up to and including November 22, and are invited to inspect them.

TAFT FIXES RATES FOR PANAMA CANAL

(Continued From First Page.)

and exit for the west coast South American trade.
Will Not Retard Growth.
"The normal growth of the traffic of the Panama Canal will not be interfered with by a toll of $1.20 per net ton. The tolls in the Suez Canal at the opening of the decade were $1.74 per net ton, and in 1911 $1.20, a higher rate than is recommended for Panama. It is suggested that the tolls at Panama start with the relatively low rate to which the Suez charges will have been brought in 1913, at the end of forty-three years of traffic development."

In the President's proclamation the rate upon war vessels was fixed at 50 cents a displacement ton, and Professor Johnson said this comment to make: "The tolls upon merchant vessels should be fixed low enough to enable the commerce of the United States and the world, but the United States government is not called upon to make the Panama Canal tolls upon warships for the purpose of lightening the naval burdens of foreign countries. In sending their warships through the Panama Canal foreign nations should pay tolls high enough to cover costs and risks incurred by the canal authorities in performing the service rendered."

WOMAN IS SLAIN BY HER DAUGHTER

(Continued From Third Page.)

of the car in which the shooting occurred to Trenton as soon as possible.
His Version of Affair.
Cuthbert made the following statement of the affair to Captain of Police Culliton:
"Last night, about 7 o'clock, I took a Southern railroad train from Lynchburg to Washington. There I changed to the Pennsylvania Railroad to go to New Brunswick, N. J., where I had to change cars at Trenton. I was scheduled to arrive here at 5:50 A. M. I should judge it was about 4:30, just before we arrived at Bristol, Pa., that I heard a woman scream. I asked the porter the cause for the scream, and he informed me that some one was sick, but the continued screaming impelled me to go into the smoker, where I found a young lady shouting for someone to bring a doctor, adding that she had shot her mother."

"The girl was a total stranger to me, but she said she came from Salem, Va., and I became interested, as I was from Virginia myself, and I offered by service. There were a couple of porters there before I arrived where the woman was lying with her head in her daughter's lap. The daughter told me that the porter took the revolver from her after the shooting."

"Miss Myers had requested me to telephone her father, Mr. Dillard, at Salem, and ask him to inform her brother of the shooting."

Father and Brother Notified.
Miss Myers received a reply to this message while detained at the police station.

The father and the brother were notified of the tragedy. The brother replied that he would leave by a fast train for Trenton.

In a talk with newspaper reporters Mr. Cuthbert, who is a clean-cut looking man, apparently a little under sixty, said that he is a munganeer miller, and lives at 2721 Rosemont Avenue, in the suburbs of Lynchburg.

mother was conscious, but was unable to do anything more than mutter, but understood all that was being said, and gave a nodding assent when the daughter pleaded for forgiveness.

Were Visiting in Salem.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Roanoke, Va., November 13.—Mrs. John Rappe Myers, Sr., and her daughter, Miss Gladys Myers, had been visiting Mrs. Myers's son in Salem since June. They left Roanoke yesterday afternoon on the Memphis special, at 5:45 o'clock for New York, where they were to spend several days before returning to their home in Greensburg, Pa. Mrs. Myers was between forty-five and fifty years old, and the wife of John Rappe Myers, Sr., of Greensburg, Pa. She is survived by Mr. Myers and two children, Miss Gladys Myers, who accidentally shot her early this morning, and John Rappe Myers, Jr., of Salem, a member of the firm of Elliott

Always Had Pistol.
Those who knew Miss Myers intimately say that she never retired at night unless she had a pistol under her pillow. They say that both Mrs. Myers and her daughter were nervous and that they always feared burglars. It is known that both traveled with a quantity of jewelry.
The family was well known in Salem and several months ago purchased a fine home on Pennsylvania Avenue, which had been splendidly furnished, and which they had moved into a few months ago with their son.

One distressing feature of the tragedy is the fact that the mother and daughter were en route to New York to purchase the wedding trousseau for the latter, it being understood that she was to be married in a few months to Blair Dillard, of Salem, a prominent young man, who is terribly distressed over the occurrence, and to whom the first news of the tragedy came this morning.
It is said that it was due entirely to the business affairs of the husband and son that the women made their trip partly in Salem, and not to any estrangement between J. Rappe Myers, Sr., and his family.

Prominent in Lynchburg.
Lynchburg, Va., November 13.—W. R. Outhbert, who is detained at Trenton, is president of the National Paint and Mangano Company of this city, and is prominent in business circles. He left here last evening for New Brunswick, N. J.

THE OBJECT OF OUR BUSINESS

Is to make you see things in their best light.

Our expert service is "Good for the Eyes"

The S. GALESKI Optical Co.

Main and 9th Sts. 223 E. Broad St.

5-inch Cut Glass Nappie, worth $1.25, for 75c.

The E. B. Taylor Co.

The Name "Hamilton"

$15.00 and up.

on the dial of any timepiece is a definite guarantee of accuracy.

Smith & Webster Time Specialists. 612 E. Main.

The service is the very quickest on prescriptions at

Tragle's

and his instrumentalists, as evidenced by their unceasing and inextinguishable smiles—smiles which annoyed those who admired the artist and reflected upon the discipline maintained in the company.

Anna Bussert sang Maid Marian with a voice of excellent quality which she used not only with prodigality, but with much art. Her voice is free from the unpleasantness in its "break" that marred so much of Besse Abbot's singing, and she executed the difficult and florid ornaments at the conclusion of the "Forest Song" pleasingly, at least, while, as an actress, she simply "played rings around" Miss Abbot. Nor did Louise Le Baron's Alan-a-Dale suffer by comparison with that of Florence Wickham. A pure contralto, with round and mellow lower tones, she sang very effectively and played with infinitely more care than the better known singer.

And music-loving Richmond probably almost paid, by its attendance, the expenses of the engagement.
W. Douglas Gordon.

CHARLES CITY COUNTY MEN HAVE BIG DEER HUNT

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Malvern Hill, Va., November 13.—On Monday and Tuesday of this week the following men enjoyed more sport deer hunting than they have in a number of years: Messrs. J. R. E. A. Saunders, Third, H. T. Harrison, Frank and John Avery, J. P. Orange, C. Hill Carter, S. Parke Register, Jr., H. S. Saunders, W. J. Hogan, Beverley Carter, Allan P. Johnson, J. Rathine, Dr. Harry Marshall, of Norristown, Pa.; Thomas Ellett, of Richmond, and J. M. Bell.
On Monday Frank Avery killed a deer, a second one eluding the dogs and hunters by taking to the James River at Bay View. On Tuesday bright and early the hunt was taken up again. A. P. Johnson being the successful sportsman in the morning, while C. Hill Carter brought down a fine young buck during the afternoon.

Merchant Assailed.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Williamsburg, Va., November 13.—Charles Lanier, a merchant doing business at Five Forks, made an assentment to C. F. Ayers, trustee. The liabilities are small, and the assets consist of stock, fixtures and open accounts. Poor collections is given as the cause of the assignment. The disturbance was accompanied by a muffled sound, and seemed to come from the bowels of the earth. It was learned this morning that the shocks were caused by the firing of heavy cannon off the Virginia Capes.

LOVE IS YOUNG

Richmond Men of 74 Marry Young Widows—Met on Ninth St.

That stories about romantic courtships on ocean voyages sometimes come true, was proved yesterday in the city of Baltimore by the marriage of Frank F. Teiser, of 2321 Stuart Avenue, this city, and Mrs. Clara F. Ostermeier, of York, Pa. It detracts nothing from the romance of the tale that the groom is a widower of seventy-four years and his bride a widow of thirty-four.

It all started on a trans-Atlantic liner en route from Bremen to New York more than a year ago, according to the groom's explanation yesterday. The future husband and wife met on the ship, and before the voyage was finished they had plighted their troth.

Mr. Teiser left this city for Baltimore on Monday to meet his bride there. The ceremony was performed yesterday afternoon by Rev. C. M. Eyster, pastor of the First Evangelical Lutheran Church, of Baltimore, and took place in the parlor of the Carrollton Hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Teiser left at once by boat for Richmond, and will arrive here to-day. For the present they will make their home at 221 Stuart Avenue, but later will take a house on Allen Avenue.

Mr. Teiser was formerly a real estate dealer in this city. He is now retired, although he occasionally engages in a business transaction. He has three children and eight grandchildren living. Two daughters, Mrs. Pollak and Mrs. Angibere, live in this city. A son lives in Baltimore.

ALLEGED FORGER

West Virginia Man Held by Police as a Suspicious Character.

L. H. Stanley-Dawson, alias W. M. Ross, of Lost Creek, W. Va., was arrested yesterday by Detectives Wren and Gentry and held at the First Police Station as a suspicious character, suspected of having committed forgery.

The man was arrested on complaint of Thomas Bolling, clerk at Gilbert's Hotel, who said that Dawson, who represented himself as Ross, asked to have a check for a small sum cashed. It was made payable to Ross and signed by W. M. Forest, and drawn on a bank at Clarkburg, W. Va. Bolling's suspicion was aroused and he detained the visitor and notified Police Headquarters, with the result that the alleged forger was shortly in custody.

Jefferson Stock Listed.
With the opening of the Richmond Stock Exchange yesterday the stock of the Jefferson Realty Corporation took its place as a regularly listed security. It will hereafter be included in the stocks listed on the local exchange. Officers of the corporation stated yesterday that the listing has no significance other than that it will afford those interested in the stock an opportunity to keep closer tabs on it, and in this manner facilitate its sale and purchase.

Fire on C. & O. Viaduct.
Fire on the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway Viaduct at the foot of Ninth Street last night about 9 o'clock caused a general alarm to be turned in, but it was put out without difficulty. The damage was slight. It was said to have originated from a spark from a passing locomotive.

Arrested for Speeding Motorcycle.
P. J. Fletcher, eighteen years old, was arrested yesterday by Motorcycle Policeman Clarke on the charge of running a motorcycle faster than allowed by law. He was taken to the Second Police Station, where bail was at once furnished.

Arrested for Speeding Motorcycle.
P. J. Fletcher, eighteen years old, was arrested yesterday by Motorcycle Policeman Clarke on the charge of running a motorcycle faster than allowed by law. He was taken to the Second Police Station, where bail was at once furnished.

Arrested for Speeding Motorcycle.
P. J. Fletcher, eighteen years old, was arrested yesterday by Motorcycle Policeman Clarke on the charge of running a motorcycle faster than allowed by law. He was taken to the Second Police Station, where bail was at once furnished.

Arrested for Speeding Motorcycle.
P. J. Fletcher, eighteen years old, was arrested yesterday by Motorcycle Policeman Clarke on the charge of running a motorcycle faster than allowed by law. He was taken to the Second Police Station, where bail was at once furnished.

Arrested for Speeding Motorcycle.
P. J. Fletcher, eighteen years old, was arrested yesterday by Motorcycle Policeman Clarke on the charge of running a motorcycle faster than allowed by law. He was taken to the Second Police Station, where bail was at once furnished.

Arrested for Speeding Motorcycle.
P. J. Fletcher, eighteen years old, was arrested yesterday by Motorcycle Policeman Clarke on the charge of running a motorcycle faster than allowed by law. He was taken to the Second Police Station, where bail was at once furnished.

Arrested for Speeding Motorcycle.
P. J. Fletcher, eighteen years old, was arrested yesterday by Motorcycle Policeman Clarke on the charge of running a motorcycle faster than allowed by law. He was taken to the Second Police Station, where bail was at once furnished.

Arrested for Speeding Motorcycle.
P. J. Fletcher, eighteen years old, was arrested yesterday by Motorcycle Policeman Clarke on the charge of running a motorcycle faster than allowed by law. He was taken to the Second Police Station, where bail was at once furnished.

Arrested for Speeding Motorcycle.
P. J. Fletcher, eighteen years old, was arrested yesterday by Motorcycle Policeman Clarke on the charge of running a motorcycle faster than allowed by law. He was taken to the Second Police Station, where bail was at once furnished.

Arrested for Speeding Motorcycle.
P. J. Fletcher, eighteen years old, was arrested yesterday by Motorcycle Policeman Clarke on the charge of running a motorcycle faster than allowed by law. He was taken to the Second Police Station, where bail was at once furnished.

Arrested for Speeding Motorcycle.
P. J. Fletcher, eighteen years old, was arrested yesterday by Motorcycle Policeman Clarke on the charge of running a motorcycle faster than allowed by law. He was taken to the Second Police Station, where bail was at once furnished.

The Best Dressed Men

you see do not necessarily spend a fortune for their clothes. If you are curious to know how to dress economical, come here and learn. You will be amazed at the elegance of Burk-Made Clothes, moderately priced. Attractive lines at $12.50, $15.00, $18.00, $20.00

BURK & COMPANY,

Main and Eighth Streets.

Said By The Critics

Chicago Record-Herald—His earnest purpose is of the very fiber of his work. A sweet and fine love story. It is sweet-spirited, wise, full of ripened thought and feeling. It is a noble and wholesome book.

Boston Globe—This is the gentle story of the love of a man and a woman in which the vigor of "That Printer of Udell's," the kindness of "The Shepherd of the Hills," the power of "Dan Matthews" and the grace of "Barbara Worth" are all woven into a strain more delicate and more beautiful than this great writer has ever before penned.

Memphis News-Scimitar—A really great book. You feel better, you feel refreshed, and you feel a desire to drop to your knees and thank Almighty God for such a book and for permitting you to read it.

THEIR YESTERDAYS

By the Same Author
THE WINNING OF BARBARA WORTH

Illustrations by Coates. Each $1.50 Net

PUBLISHED BY THE BOOK SUPPLY COMPANY—Chicago

